Commissioner for Patents
PO Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir:

The Notice of Allowance in the above-referenced application was accompanied by a statement of reasons for allowance. While the stated reasons for allowance recite language from independent claim 1, they should merely be considered as providing an example of a reason that the subject matter to which independent claim 1 is directed is allowable. The scope of independent claim 1 and each claim depending therefrom should be construed in accordance with the meanings of the terms recited therein, and the full, available scope of equivalents to such elements.

Therefore, to the extent that the Examiner's reasons for allowance as stated are not relevant to, or wholly encompassing of, a particular claim, independent or dependent, it is assumed that, pursuant to 37 C.F.R. §1.104(e), the Examiner has determined that the record of the prosecution of the above-referenced application as a whole makes clear the reasons for allowing those claims.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Brick G. Power". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Brick" being more prominent.
